

biotalent

More information on biotalent.myspecies.info

EU Conference - 18 May 2017

Royal Belgian Institute of Natural Sciences, Brussels

PROGRAMME

Tackling biodiversity challenges through innovative e-learning

9.00 Registration

9.30 Welcome | Camille Pisani | RBINS Brussels General Director

9.35 Biodiversity in a Changing Climate

Isabella Van de Velde | Project Coordinator | RBINS Brussels

9.45 Presenting the BIOTALENT project

Architecture and Programme Development | Carlos Rodrigues - EduFor Portugal

Open Educational Resources | Gergely Babocsay - HNBM Budapest

Quality Assurance and Validation | Catherina Voreadou - NHM Crete

Dissemination and Valorisation | Ana Casino - CETAF

10.15 Inquiry-Based Science Education | Franz Bogner - University of Bayreuth

10.25 Best Practices in e-learning | Gregory Kenicer - Royal Botanic Garden Edinburgh

10.35 Innovation in Science Education | Evita Tasiopoulou - European Schoolnet

10.45 Coffee break

11.00 Panel discussion - Moderator: Dirk Draulans | biologist, writer and journalist

Natural History Collections as a Resource for Innovative Education

Isabella Van de Velde | Royal Belgian Institute of Natural Sciences

Knowledge and Skills Needed for the Labour Market

Willy Sleurs | Flemish Ministry of Education

How to Engage Students More Deeply in Science?

Sofoklis Sotiriou | Ellinogermaniki Agogi Center for Science Teachers Training, Athens

How Can Nature Organisations Contribute to Innovative Education?

Melina Kyametsis | Natuurpunt CVN, Flanders

New Tools, Methodologies, Approaches for Innovative Education

Tamás Vásárhelyi | Hungarian Society for Environmental Education

12.30 Closure of the conference

12.45 Lunch, featuring some creepy crawly delights!

14.00 Guided visit to the Poison exhibition at the Museum of Natural Sciences